

College Scholarship Winners - Class of 2005

*The information was requested by and submitted to Mrs. DeGenova in writing by parents.

Tiffany Allen, daughter of Gregg and Lori Allen, will attend Thiel College. She received an Achievement Award valued at $2500 a year, renewable for 4 years.

Katie Bilko, daughter of Joan and Larry Bilko, will attend Penn State University, Shenango Campus. She received the Blue and White Scholarship valued at $1,500 a year and renewable for 4 years. Katie also won the Big 33 Scholarship ($1,000) and the Dr. A.M. O'Brien Nursing Scholarship for $1,000.

Andrew Brown, son of Randy and Tammie Brown, will attend Westminster College. He was awarded the Young Presbyterian Scholarship valued at $11,000 a year and renewable for 4 years.

Jessica Davis, daughter of Mark and Susan Davis, will also attend Westminster College. She was awarded the Tower Scholarship valued at $9,000 a year and renewable for 4 years.

Jessica Du, daughter of Deborah Grumski and John Du, will attend Clarion University. She received the Board of Governor's Scholarship valued at $1,666 and renewable for 4 years.

Sean Getway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Getway, will attend Norwich University. He received the Norwich University Academic Honors Scholarship valued at $10,044 a year and renewable for 4 years. He also received the Dixie Hollis Scholarship for $1,300 a year for 4 years.

Allison Gnagey, daughter of Dan and Janine Gnagey, will attend Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She received the Provost's Emerging Leader Scholarship for $1,000 a year for 4 years.

Tara Grgurich, daughter of Jerry Grgurich and Debbie Datchuk, will attend Westminster College. She received the Jerb Miller Scholarship for $10,000 and renewable for 4 years. She also received a 4 year music scholarship ($550/year) and the Kulusich-Buzzeo Music Scholarship for $1,000.

Alex Hall, son of David and Diane Hall, will attend Allegheny College. He received the Trustee Scholarship valued at $10,000 a year and renewable for 4 years.

Kyle Heben, son of Lynn and Carol Heben, will attend Thiel College. He received the Thiel Academic Scholarship valued at $6,500 a year and renewable for 4 years. He also received the Norman P. Mortensen Scholarship for $1250 a year for 4 years and the Joy Cone Scholarship for $1500.

Matt Johns, son of Jeff and Becky Johns, will attend Youngstown State University. He received the Dean's Scholarship for $2,000 a year, renewable for 4 years.

Regina Kelly, daughter of Richard and Jean Kelly, will attend Point Park University. She received an Academic Scholarship valued at $3,000 a year, renewable for 4 years. She also received the Conservatory Award ($4,000 a year for 4 years) and the Community Service and Leadership Award for $1,000 a year renewable for 4 years.

Kyle Knisley, son of Rex and Dawn Knisley, will attend The College of Wooster. He received an Academic Achievement Award valued at $10,000 a year, renewable for 4 years.

Christina Leonard, daughter of Kathie Leonard, will attend Youngstown State University. She received the University Scholars Scholarship valued for over $8,000 a year, renewable for 4 years. It covers full room, board, tuition, books.

Lindsey Lewis, daughter of Denise and Mark Lewis, will attend Bowling Green State University. She received an academic scholarship valued at $1500 a year renewable for 4 years. She also won the Shenango Valley River Watchers Scholarship

Sara Liska, daughter of Michael and Karen Liska, will attend Kent State University. She received the University Award for $4,820 a year renewable for 4 years.

Nick Lumpp, son of Jim and Roslyn Lumpp, will attend the University of Maryland. He received the President's Scholarship and an academic scholarship valued at $5,200 renewable for 4 years.

Elyse Magnotto, daughter of Michael and Aileen Magnotto, will attend Boston University. She received the Betty Lou Artman Humanitarian Award valued at $10,000. She also received the Thomas and Laura Ridge Scholarship for $2,000 and the Hermitage Rotary Club's $2000 scholarship.

Brad Maniscalco, son of Glenn and Lisa Maniscalco, will attend Kent State University. He received the Presidential Scholarship for $3820 a year for 4 years, A university Award for $3829 per year, and a Merit Award for $1,000 a year for 4 years.

Chere Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael S. Marshall, will attend Saint Bonaventure University. She received a full basketball scholarship, valued at $31,883 a year, renewable for 5 years.

Ryan Phillips, son of Dave and Kim Phillips, will attend Kent State University. He received the University and President's Awards valued at $7640 renewable for 4 years. He also received the Degree of Honor Scholarship for $1000.

Maria Podolan, daughter of Michael G. and Amy Linn Podolan, will attend Duquesne University. She received the Presidential Merit Scholarship valued at $4,000 and the Duquesne Grant for $2,500, both renewable for 4 years. She also won the Mercer County United Way Scholarship for $500, the Edgewood Surgical Hospital Award for $250, and The Wolves Club of Farrell Scholarship for $1,000.

Spencer Rohrbacher, son of Harry and Dena Rohrbacker, will attend the University of Rochester. He received the Dean's Scholarship for $5,000 a year, renewable for 4 years. He also received the Rochester National Grant for $16,500. Spencer also received the Edgewood Surgical Hospital Award for $250.

Sheila Shaffer, daughter of Matt and Gina Shaffer, will attend Wake Forest University. She received a Heritage Scholarship for $6,000 a year, renewable for 4 years. She also received the Herald Academic Excellence Team Award for $3,500, the Jamesa Morrison Memorial Scholarship for $1,000, the Hilary T. Kley Memorial Scholarship for $500, the American Business Women's Association Scholarship for $2,000 and the Strimbu Memorial Scholarship for $10,000.